

Advance Information is for London

L

From daredevil double deckers leaping over Tower Bridge to drunken barristers unable to stand up to toast the King, this pocket A-Z is filled with fun and quirky facts about London.

Watch the Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace. The flag flying on top is the Royal Standard and shows that the monarch is at home.

Queen Victoria appeared on the first ever stamp in 1840. British stamps are still identified by an image of the monarch - not by country name.

This is first in our 'A is for Alphabet' series of books and the first London ABC for over 130 years. A great reference book and ideal gift for visitors to the capital.
